- Thank you to all of the students and parents for making this year's Feast of Plenty a success. The foods were delicious and a good time was had by all.
- On Thursday, we enjoyed having special visitors come to see us. The turkeys to be pardoned on Wednesday by President Obama were brought to school by the Domino family from Early. You can watch the pardoning on Wednesday by going to the following website:

- Next week, we have school on Monday and Tuesday only, as there is teacher in-service on Wednesday.
- There will be no spelling list next week.
- Have a wonderful Thanksgiving!
- Remind your child/children to dress in layers when coming to school as our weather is constantly changing.
- Reading at home is a great way for students to become better readers, writers, and spellers. Please encourage your child to read regularly at home.
- As we start thinking about multiplication, it is important for your student to continue practicing his/her addition and subtraction facts.
- We've been learning a lot here in 3rd grade. Here are a few things you can ask your child about:
 - *Inferences/Reading Charts
 - *Action Verbs
 - *R-Controlled Vowels
 - *Graphs and Grids
 - *Volume and capacity
